Even if you are not selected to receive this award, some or all of this application could be used in your application portfolio to post-secondary institutions.

Submit 5 images (jpg or pdf) of artwork completed in the last 1-2 years*.
• Make selections that represent your interests and skills
• Work can include 2D and 3D work using traditional or non-traditional materials. Make selections that best represent your diversity of interests and skills. Select and use materials and techniques that suit your ideas.
• At least 50% of your portfolio work should be original, self-directed projects (not projects from a class)
• Talk to your art teacher about how to take photos of your work or look online for “how to take photos of artwork”. Quality photography matters!
• Name images: First Name Last Name #. For example: “John Smith 1”

Submit a 5–10-page pdf of sketchbook work*.
• The pages could be of ideas that you are exploring, research for projects or skills you are trying to learn. The drawings do not need to be complete.
• Use any method you like to make the pdf, but an easy way is to paste an image of one drawing per page in a word document and then save as a pdf or do a multi-page scan on a photocopier.
• Name it: First Name Last Name Sketchbook. For example: “John Smith Sketchbook”

*It is highly recommended that you look at the admission portfolio requirements for the post-secondary institutions you are applying to. Select artwork that you can use both for this award and for your admissions portfolio.
